Stillman Divorce Case Recesses Until July 13

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., July 1.—The Stillman divorce case recessed today until July 13. James A. Stillman, the only witness today, was on the stand for direct examination, but was not questioned to any extent it was when the recess was taken. Lawyers were understood to have spent most of the forenoon arguing points of law and the admissibility of certain evidence. Mrs. Stillman was absent for the first time. She planned to return to New York during the afternoon with her son, "Bud."

League of Nations Plans To Rehabilitate Austria

PARIS, July 1.—To permit the rehabilitation of Austria, the council of ambassadors decided today to ask the United States and the allies to withhold all claims against her for twenty years. During the 20-year period of recovery, the league of nations will be expected to float a loan to put the almost bankrupt country on its feet.

Cabinet Men Home on 4th.

Vice President and Mrs.
Coolidge Guests at Mc-
Lean Residence.

By EVELYN C. HUNT.

The Vice President and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge will be the guests of honor on July 4 of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. McLean, who are entertaining at dinner at their country home, "Friendship."

Mr. and Mrs. McLean returned Thursday from Cincinnati, where they spent several weeks.

The majority of the Cabinet members have not made any special plans for the Fourth, several of them remaining quietly at home in Washington.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes do not expect to be out of the city over the holiday, but will celebrate the day quietly at their beautiful home overlooking Rock Creek Park.

Other Cabinet members remaining in the city include Secretary of the Interior Fall and Secretary of Agriculture Wallace. Secretary of Commerce Hoover will return to the city today from a short trip to New York.

DENBY WILL SPEND PART OF DAY AT HIS DESK.

Secretary Denby expects to spend the greater part of the day at his desk in the Navy Department. Called home by a business engagement, Postmaster General Will Hays will take advantage of his trip to be with his wife and small son over the Fourth. Mr. Hays left yesterday for Sullivan, Ind., to be present this morning at a meeting of a group of bankers from the West interested in savings banks.

Secretary of War Weeks left yesterday for his farm near Lancaster, N. H. He will be back in the city Tuesday. Secretary of Labor Davis is in Illinois today, and will not return to Washington until after the Fourth.

The Ambassador of France and Mme. Juseurand, who have been in New York, returned home and will spend the holiday here.

The Ambassador of Chile and Mme. Mathieu postponed their departure for Europe until the first of next month. They had planned to leave today. The Ambassador and Mme. Mathieu are in New York for a week.

DR. PAUL REINSECH HOST TO CHINESE VISITOR.

Dr. Paul Reinsech, former United States Minister to China, was host at dinner last evening to Dr. Chu Chi Chien, former minister of foreign affairs in China. There were twelve guests, including the Russian Ambassador and the Belgian Ambassador.

Dr. Chu Chi Chien has taken possession of the house he has leased in Chevy Chase for the week.

Miss Margaret Wilson returned to New York after spending several days with her father, former President Wilson, and Mrs. Wilson at their home on S street. Miss Wilson just returned from a six weeks' stay in Chicago.

Rear Admiral Andrew T. Long has been detailed as chief of staff of the admiral of the fleet.

The former Secretary of the Treasury, David F. Houston, accepted the chairmanship of the board of trustees of the National Child Labor Committee. He succeeded ceeds Dr. Felix Adler, who will remain as member emeritus of the board.

PLANNING FOR VISIT OF MARSHAL FOCH.

The program announced so far for the prospective visit of Marshal Foch to the United States in October includes a visit to Kansas City, where he will be the guest of the American Legion on October 31, and a visit to Washington on Armistice Day, November 11.

The Marshal will leave Paris early in October and will travel through the United States, visiting San Francisco about the middle of the month. He will stop in Kansas City on his way East.

Mrs. L. W. Eugster and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Eugster, have gone to their summer home, at Basto Bay, Maine. They will be joined in about ten days by Dr. Eugster.

Dr. and Mrs. Alexander F. Ma-gruder have gone to their country place, Boscobel, Maryland, for the summer.

Comdr. Samuel M. Robinson will come to Washington shortly to take up his residence, having been ordered to the city for duty in the Bureau of Engineering, Navy Department.

JAMES CRAIG MARRIES BALTIMORE GIRL.

The marriage of Miss Lillian M. Johnson, daughter of Mrs. L. B. Johnson, of Baltimore, to James Craig, this city, took place Thursday at Alexandria, Va. Among those who attended were Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Biddix and Mrs. H. J. Haberman, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Bannan and Miss Clara Craig, of Washington. After a trip North Mr.

Mrs. George T. Maxwell
Entertains Guests at Southampton.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Maj. Gen. Peyton C. March will be the guest of Mrs. George T. Maxwell at Southampton over the Fourth, the other members of her party being Viscount Holmdeale, McCormick Goodheart, of the British Embassy, and Albert Z. Gray. Tomorrow night Mrs. Maxwell will give a dinner for her guests.

Mrs. Paul Fitz Simons and Mrs. James W. Gerard were among those who entertained at dinner last evening on the roof garden at the Ritz-Carlton.

Dr. and Mrs. William C. Rives, of 1702 Rhode Island avenue, Washington, are at the Belmont Hotel.

James Swan Frick has come from Baltimore to the Plaza Hotel before going to Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Higgins, of 160 West Fifty-ninth street, left yesterday for Southampton to spend the summer; also Mrs. Higgins' mother, Mrs. Frederick Van Lennep.

Mrs. William Leonard Davis, of 281 Madison avenue, has gone to Lenox as a guest of Mrs. William Pollock.

Senor Don Beltran Mathieu, Ambassador of Chile in Washington, and Senora Mathieu are at the Ritz-Carlton for a few days.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., July 1.—Count Paul Teleki, prime minister of Hungary at the time of Charles' unsuccessful attempt to recover the throne in 1918, is on his way to the United States. The former premier makes his visit, Dr. Harry A. Garfield announced here tonight, in order to deliver a course of lectures at the institute of political science at Williams College from July 25 to August 27, with international affairs as its general subject.

Dr. Garfield also announced to-night the representative of France and Italy at the League of Nations, Dr. Achille Vialatte, will be Prof. Achille Vialatte.

Topics on which the other speakers will deliver free public lecture courses throughout the institute's session are now arranged as follows: Viscount James Bryce, "International Relations of the Old World States;" Tommaso Tittoni, president of the Italian senate, "Italian Foreign Affairs;" Baron Sergius A. Korff, "Russian Foreign Affairs and Relations;" and Stephen Panaretou, former Bulgarian Minister, "Near Eastern Affairs and Conditions."

In addition, the following men are among those who will take an informal part in the institute's work and deliver special addresses: John W. Davis, Frank W. Polk, Bernard M. Baruch, Thomas W. Lamont and former President William H. Taft.

Miss Ethel Delight McKinney, who has been visiting abroad has postponed her return home until October.

Mrs. Sherman McCallum and Miss Cecilia Sherman McCallum are staying at the Hotel Cambon, Paris.

Maj. and Mrs. Oliver Newman will leave in August for Des Moines Camp, Des Moines, Iowa, to visit Mrs. Newman's son, Capt. Gilbert Bixby, U. S. A., who has just returned from Honolulu.

Miss Helen Carusi left yesterday for Huntington, L. I., to be the guest of Miss Sally McAdoo, daughter of the former Secretary of the Treasury, William G. McAdoo.

Col. Clarence Connor, U. S. A., has been ordered to Texas for duty. Mrs. Connor will sail sometime this month for Europe.

Walter Trent is making a brief visit to New York.

Colin Livingston is spending a few days in New York.

POPULAR MARYLAND COUPLE MARRIES IN WASHINGTON.

The marriage of Miss Olivia Somervell Dent to Charles Henry Camalleri took place Thursday morning at St. Aloysius Church. The bride, who is the daughter of J. Marshall Dent, Jr., and Mary Turner Dent, of Oakley, St. Marys County, Md., is prominent in the younger set of Southern Maryland. She was becomingly gowned in white hand-embroidered French organdie over white satin with hat of white tulle and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley, and sweet peas. The bridegroom is a prominent young lawyer of Leonardtown, Md., being a member of the firm of Wells, Ryan, Camalleri and Mudd. He is the son of Judge B. Harris Camalleri, of Leonardtown.

Kenneth Duke, of Leonardtown, was best man, and Miss Ida Elizabeth Dent, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Camalleri left for Cape May where the Maryland State Bar Association is holding a convention. The bride's traveling gown was of navy blue Tricotine with hat to match. The couple will reside in Leonardtown where they have a delightful new home on Breton Bay.

Miss Mae Gertrude O'Meara, of Washington, and Walter Eric Norris, of Derby Line, Vt., were married at the cathedral in Baltimore at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, June 29, by the Rev. Father Hickey. The ceremony was followed by a reception and supper at the home of Mrs. J. Louis Wacksmuth, sister of the bride, in Walbrook, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris will spend the summer at Newport, Vt., and in the fall will make their residence at Derby Line, Vt.

Mrs. Edmond A. Hughes prominent both in North Dakota and in Washington, also in both the literary and political circles and member of the League American Pen Women, returned to Washington and is stopping at the Shoreham Hotel.

John J. Higgins, Dr. A. B. Huot, Adie Hummer and Chester Taylor motored to Jersey City to see the boxing match. They will stop by New York and Atlantic City on their return home.

REISS FUNERAL TO TAKE PLACE AT 2:30 MONDAY

Oldest Inhabitants Asked
To Attend—Woerner
Funeral Today.

Funeral services for Benjamin W. Reiss, life long resident of the District and recording secretary of the Oldest Inhabitants' Association, who died yesterday at his summer home in Washington Grove, Md., will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the residence, 1806 Belmont Road, at 2:30 o'clock. Theodore W. Noyes, president of the Oldest Inhabitants' Association, has invited members of the association to the service.

Mr. Reiss was born in Washington February 5, 1847 at 1406 G street northwest and had resided in the District up to the time of his death. In 1871 he entered the War Department as a clerk and remained there until his retirement, August of last year. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Josephine A. Reiss and two daughters.

Otto E. Woerner.

Funeral services for Otto E. Woerner, prominent Washingtonian and attorney for the Federal Trade Commission, who died last night at the Emergency Hospital following a brief illness, will be conducted from his home at 1755 Columbia Road, this morning at 9:30 a. m. by the Rev. Dr. Abram Simon. Mr. Woerner, who was forty-seven years old, was born in Philadelphia, and came here twenty years ago. He was prominent in law and civic circles and was a member of many lodges. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sadie Woerner, and a son. Interment will be at the Washington Hebrew Congregation Cemetery.

Elizabeth G. S. Rice.

Mrs. Elizabeth G. Simpson Rice, mother of Lieut. Gitz Rice, an attaché of the British Embassy and noted as a song composer, died last Sunday at Lakeside, Quebec, near Montreal, according to word received by friends today in Washington. Mrs. Rice taught in the public schools in this city for seven years, and was interested in charitable and civic movements. After her marriage to Amos I. Rice, a Canadian business man, she moved to Canada. She is survived by two sons, one daughter and two sisters, all residing in Washington.

Annie Tierney.

Solemn requiem high mass will be celebrated at St. Stephen's Church this morning at 11 o'clock for Mrs. Annie Tierney, who died Thursday at Georgetown Hospital following a long illness. Mrs. Tierney was born in Castlemary, County Cork, Ireland, 61 years ago, and came to the United States at the age of 16. She was a member of the Catholic Sisters of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and the Royal Neighbors. She is survived by her husband, Patrick J. Tierney, three daughters and one son. Interment will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mrs. Maria A. McDermott.

Mrs. Maria A. McDermott, who died yesterday at her residence, 608 E street northwest, will be buried at Mount Olivet Cemetery this morning after the celebration of solemn requiem high mass at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church. Mrs. McDermott, who was 55 years old, was connected with several relief organizations during the war and also prominent in local charitable movements.
